Changes to Wheel-Trans Eligibility

The TTC strives to provide barrier-free, accessible transit for all. The goal of their services is to ensure that everyone has equal access to transportation and all individuals have the ability to travel freely.

As of January 1, 2017, Wheel-Trans has expanded its eligibility to include not only individuals with physical disabilities, but also those with cognitive, sensory, and mental health disabilities. The TTC is available to support customers in any way possible as this transition occurs.

Eligibility is assessed based on an individual's ability to travel on public transit. It is not based on income, age, or disability type. The TTC is striving to achieve equity rather than equality. They are attempting to ensure each customer has a customized experience on transit, an experience that is targeted towards their needs.

Those who are current customers of Wheel-Trans will not need to recertify at this point. In the future, individuals will be contacted to complete the recertification process. This will ensure all customers have access to the same, reliable service.
