

Café Group

A group for newcomer Arabic men

It is a meeting for dialogue, consultations, and exchange of experiences where you can obtain the correct and reliable information about Canadian laws and settlement.

Cafe' meetings help newcomers to deal with challenges that face them and their families:

- Settlement and Language difficulties
- Parental difficulties
- Coexisting with other cultures
- Employment Challenges
- Challenges dealing with loneliness and isolation

The group is run by specialized people whose goal is to organize these meetings in a safe space for Arabic men newcomers' where they can share their questions, concerns, and challenges and get the information and resources they need.

Biweekly, on Thursdays | 11:00 am to 13:00 pm
@ Victoria Park Hub Center, Scarborough
